

Dear enworld Team,

I am writing to express my interest in an Associate Consultant position at enworld. My journey in recruitment began with an internship at Westhouse Group in Geneva, during this initial experience, I realized how much I enjoyed engaging with people and helping them navigate their career paths. This foundational experience ignited my commitment to pursuing a career in customer service and relationship where I have since amassed over 8 years of experience.

My language skills have proven efficient in connecting with a diverse range of clients, enhancing communication and understanding across different cultures. Additionally, my experience in the luxury industry has provided me with a deep understanding of global firms and its unique demands. I am confident that my background will be a significant asset. My familiarity with the industry's standards and expectations will enable me to effectively match talents with your clients' needs.

Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to the opportunity to discuss how my experience and skills align with the needs of enworld.

Sincerely,

Anaïs Haruhi Lübke
